

Think Central

Your child will be using the following curriculum for this school year. (Journeys for ELA and Math Expressions for math). They can access the books at home by typing www.Thinkcentral.com. Once on this site click either Reading and Language Arts or Mathematics.

- A blue banner with the text "Reading & Language Arts" in white. The background shows a child reading a book and a desk with a lamp.
- An orange banner with the text "Mathematics" in white. The background shows a staircase and a globe.

Once a topic is chosen, you then will click Journeys or Math Expression.

Students can then login using their first and last name.

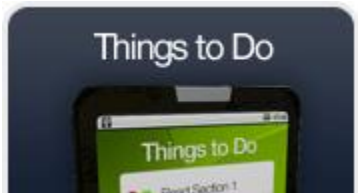

Please pull down appropriate drop like Woodhaven-Brownstown
